

Greenbriar Consortium

in conjunction with

The Foundation For Modern Music

present

War: What Is It Good For?

the 3rd concert in the 2014-15 season of All's Fair

A special premier of the chamber version of the stunning cantata

Of Shrapnel and Blood by Mark Buller

and rarely-heard performance of

General Speech by Robert Erickson's with Berk Schneider, trombone and other works by Donizetti, Ravel, McGuire, Schönberg/Boubill, and Schostakovitch with performers

Julia Fox – soprano; Sonja Bruzauskas and Ryan Stickney – mezzo-soprano;

Alys Dyke and Marcia Sterling – alto; Jeff Ragsdale – counter tenor;

Todd Miller – tenor; Felipe Gaspar – bass

Keith Weber and Paul Boyd – piano; Judy Dines and Matthew Roitstein – flute;

Anne Leek – oboe; James Johnson – clarinet; Eric Arbiter – bassoon;

Katharine Caliendo and Scott Hoehn – French horn; Berk Schneider – trombone;

Kiju Joh and Lindsey Baggett-Shannon – violin; Dan Strba – viola and guitar;

Christopher French and Hellen Weberpal – cello; Michael Gorman - bass;

Terry McKinney – percussion; and David Kirk – conductor

January 27, 2015 at 7:30 p.m.

Pre-concert lecture by Emily Boudreaux at 7 p.m.

Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church 4930 West Bellfort, Houston, TX 77035

Your Donation is the price of the ticket!

